

THE PEOPLE MOVING.

MAKE WAY FOR NEW JERSEY!—LARGE MASS MEETING.

We have not, since 1840, attended so large a meeting, at so great a distance from any large town, as was that we had the pleasure of witnessing on Saturday afternoon at Ellensburg, N. J., five miles from Camden. But a few days' previous notice had been given, and yet when we arrived at the place designated for holding the meeting, we found a very large number of people already assembled. About 3 o'clock, large delegations came in from the Winslow and Waterford Glass and Iron works, with wagons drawn by six and eight horses. In a beautiful grove selected for the occasion, seats had been provided for the accommodation of the ladies, and a large stand had been erected, while near by, at the top of a very high and beautiful flag-staff, waved a splendid "Clay and Frelinghuysen" banner. At the appointed hour, those who came in wagons marched in procession from the public house to the grove, a distance of about a quarter of a mile. This procession was preceded by an excellent band of music, and each delegation was preceded by a most beautiful banner. "That same old Jersey coon" occupied his proper place in the procession, and, on the whole, the display was really heart-cheering.

When these delegations arrived at the Grove, they found about five hundred patriotic and beautiful Whig ladies occupying the seats, and soon afterwards the meeting was organized by the unanimous election of Joseph McKay, Jr. Esq., as President, and a number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries. The officers immediately took their seats on the stand; after which the band played a beautiful piece of music, and the Camden Clay Minstrels sang one or two Whig songs.

Samuel R. Gummere, Esq. of Trenton, George H. Brown, Esq., formerly a member of the New Jersey Legislature, Hon. R. E. Conrad, Nathan Sargent, Esq., and Hon. Charles Naylor, of Philadelphia, and Col. Thomas W. Duffield, Jr., of Frankford, each in turn were introduced by the Chairman, in answer to calls from the multitude, and each delivered addresses replete with eloquence, argument, and force. The speakers were frequently interrupted by the enthusiastic plaudits of the assemblage; and the smiles of the ladies, while they assured the Whigs present that they are engaged in a noble cause, convinced all that the remarks which fell from the lips of the gentlemen who addressed them, received the approbation of the fair daughters of that State in which several of our battles for independence were fought. The ladies of New Jersey are actuated by the same patriotic spirit which prompted their mothers and grandmothers to aid and encourage the gallant soldiers, who by their bravery have given the names of Monmouth, Trenton, and Princeton, a conspicuous place in the Revolutionary annals of our country.

The exercises were varied by the performance of several patriotic and pleasing pieces of music by the band, and by the singing of five or six excellent Whig songs by the Camden Clay Minstrels. So long as we live, we shall remember with pleasure the enthusiasm and patriotism manifested by the Whig ladies and gentlemen, at the Mass Meeting at Ellensburg on the 27th July, 1844. They will perform their duty next fall, and the "broad seal" of New Jersey will triumph.

WHIG MASS MEETING AT COLUMBIA, PENNSYLVANIA.

Correspondence of the Philadelphia Forum.

COLUMBIA, July 26, 1844.

Mr. Editor: Thousands of people attended the meeting in this place yesterday, although the day was oppressively hot, and the roads dry and dusty, which rendered it very unpleasant to ride any great distance. Many were undoubtedly, by these causes, deterred from being present. At about noon, however, the streets near the river were crowded with people, and the doors, windows, and balconies of the houses, on either side of the streets, were filled with the smiling faces of the fair ladies of Columbia and vicinity. Delegations from York, from the Eleventh Ward, Baltimore, and from various townships, came in with beautiful banners, and before the procession was formed, the borough was literally filled to overflowing. The procession was formed at one o'clock, and the delegations were greeted, while passing through the streets, by the winning smiles and waving kerchiefs of the ladies, and many beautiful bouquets, garlands, and wreaths, were showered upon them. It was, indeed, a triumphal march.

The intensity of the heat prevented thousands from visiting the grove selected for holding the meeting, which was about a mile from the borough. There were, notwithstanding, at least 3,000 persons present, who were addressed by the "Buckeye Blacksmith," John S. Richards, Esq. of Berks, and John P. Sanderson, Esq. of Lebanon, simultaneously, and wound up with the richest, funniest, and most unique discourse, (half in the English and half in the German language,) by Col. Lindsay, of Berks, I ever heard delivered, in the midst of a heavy shower. Mr. Muhlenberg was most essentially used up by one who knows him. Col. L. is a plain, every day man, of strong mind and acute observation. He is "a trump." No other person could have kept an audience together under the circumstances.

In the evening, the Hon. Mr. Cooper and Mr. Smyser, of Adams, the "Buckeye," and Colonel Lindsay, addressed a large audience in Locust street and at the Market House, where they were greeted with the smiles and applause of a large number of ladies. You may set down Lancaster county for five thousand at least, notwithstanding the Polk-stalk demonstrations on the State Steam Engines. Your friend, B.

The Whig meeting of Saturday evening last was one of the most immense assemblages we ever saw. Senator Barrow, of Louisiana, appeared on the stand and made an able speech. He spoke in appropriate terms of the great and unexpected Whig victory in Louisiana. At each mention of the name of his State, the most unbounded and Heaven-ascending cheers burst forth from the large multitude.—Louisville Jour.

The following toast was offered at a Polk, Dallas, and Texas meeting, held at Plainville, Conn., on the 4th inst.:

"By John A. Hale: Texas—a land of freemen, admired by Christians; may it be as strongly allied to this Union as Christianity is with Democracy."

If that's all the Locofocos expect, we don't think that Texas will be immediately very "strongly allied" to the Union. What say Amos Kendall, Robert Dale Owen, and Dr. Duncan F. Forum.

WATCHMAN, WHAT OF THE NIGHT!—Be it remembered, That our opponents have not had one crumb of election news comfort, with the exception of the New Hampshire election, since 1844 has dawned upon us. Ah, we mistake;—last spring they carried the city of New Orleans by Elliott voters, and they did crowd lustily, but at the late election they lost their all. The Whigs with propriety could date their political flow of tide back to August, 1843, when North Carolina, Tennessee, and Georgia set the ball in motion. But we will confine ourselves to 1844. First came New Hampshire—Loco of course. Next came Connecticut, and the hardest political battle ever fought in that State, and the Whigs triumphed nobly. Next came Rhode Island, like the handle on a jug, all on one side, more particularly the Whig side. Next Maryland, Whig out and out. Next Virginia, a hard fought battle; but the Whigs came out first best. Next Louisiana—that State the Locos were so sure of. They say they are now willing to call it a draw game. We say it has given strong indications of being a Whig State, and next November will find it so. Thus they end for the present. In the local elections held this year, from one end of the Union to the other, defeat has stared them in the face, and they can not deny it. So much for the elections in '44, so far.—Waldo (Mc) Signal.

ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY, VA.—The Whigs of this powerful, enlightened and influential county, like their brethren of the still more powerful county of Augusta, lying side by side, are organizing in the most effective manner. We hope they know—nay, we know they do know, what they have to accomplish to counteract the sectional action of Shenandoah, Rockingham and Page, in which counties there exists a disposition to make the Presidential vote one of county strength and county pride! This does not appear to us to be taking a just view of the responsibilities of the voter to his country and to his own rights—but if our countrymen of those populous counties are resolved to act upon a narrow and contracted view of county pride, instead of the expanded motives which ought to sway the exercise of the suffrage of enlightened republicans, there is but one way to meet them—and that is by action, energy and effort on the other! It will be an event fatal to rational Republican Government, when citizens throw in their votes, not as freemen ought, under the governance of reason, right and conviction, but the influence of county and sectional feelings, stimulated by artful demagogues for party purposes!

The Whigs of Rockbridge, Samuel McDowell Moore in the Chair, a few days ago passed the following telling resolution! A resolution which speaks volumes to the agitators of Texas and Tariff Disunion:

"Resolved, That the efforts now in progress in South Carolina and elsewhere, by a portion of the Polk party to dissolve this Union, unless Texas is annexed to it, deserve more than the reprobation of every true American citizen. And as it is proposed to hold their first Disunion Convention in the city of Richmond, it is but right that they should know that Virginia forbearance does not extend to treason, nor Virginia hospitality to traitors."—Richmond Whig.

WHIG SALUTE.—About 6 o'clock on Saturday evening, the Whigs of Louisville, agreeably to previous arrangement, fired a salute of 26 guns in honor of the glorious Whig victory in Louisiana. The discharges followed each other in rapid succession, and boomed over the city as none but Whig guns can boom. Each Whig heart in the city fluttered at the sound, as joyously as the wing of an unchained eagle.—Louisville Jour.

OUTRAGE UPON THE SENATE.—Mr. Sisson, of Newport, who was confirmed by the Senate, as the Surveyor of the port of Pawcatuck, has declined the office; and the President has appointed during the recess, George Brown, who was nominated and rejected by the Senate! This is the respect which John Tyler shows the Senate of the United States.—Prov. Jour.

BEFORE AND BEHIND.—The Murfreesboro' (Tenn.) Telegraph gives the following as a specimen of the manner in which the Locofoco nominations are presented by the party in that neighborhood:

For President.

GEN. ANDREW JACKSON'S Friend, James K. Polk, of Tenn.

For Vice President.

GEORGE M. DALLAS, of Pennsylvania.

This reminds us of a sort of currency much in vogue here some time ago, which read somewhat as follows:

On demand, the subscriber, whose office is on

THE CANAL BANK,

Promises to pay John Smith One Dollar, &c.

Cincinnati Chronicle.

SANDS'S SARSAPARILLA.—The human frame may properly be compared to a musical instrument, possessing peculiar powers, all systematically arranged, and executing various movements of pieces; and life is the music produced by this combination, or the result of such harmonious action. So long as the machine is regularly wound up by a constant supply of proper nutrition, (which is pure blood,) so long will the music continue; but when the source becomes impure, this wonderful instrument will shortly cease its movements, and it is found that life is simply the sum of the functions that resist death. If proper medicine is administered while there is strength left in the constitution, disease may be subdued and the patient restored to perfect health.

Sands's Sarsaparilla, composed entirely of vegetable extracts, has been tried and fully proved, in a wide range of diseases, to be all that is required to dispel disease and re-establish a healthy action.—Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pain in the Bones, Ulcers, Scrofula, destroying the glands, Nervous Affections, Salt Rheum, and other cutaneous diseases arising from an impure and depraved state of the blood, will be safely and effectually cured by its use. Patients, after suffering for years with chronic and constitutional disorders, have speedily regained health by its use, and testified to the same for the benefit of suffering humanity.

Prepared and sold, wholesale and retail, by A. B. & D. SANDS, Wholesale Druggists, 79 Fulton st., New York. Price $1 per bottle; 6 bottles for $5. Agents for Washington city.—ROBERT FARNHAM, Bookseller, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 11th street, and R. S. PATTERSON, Druggist, corner of Pennsylvania avenue and 9th street.

HOUSES FOR RENT ON CAPITOL HILL.—THE west three-story brick house, which is in the occupancy of Mrs. Ballard, can be had at any time by making application to J. W. Beck, who can be found, at all times, at his office on East Capitol street, next to Capt. Clements' dwelling.

Also: One two-story brick house, in the immediate neighborhood of my residence, on A street east, third square from the Capitol. J. W. BECK. jy 16—

LOCAL NEWS.

ST. VINCENT'S FEMALE ORPHAN ASYLUM.—The Annual Scholastic Exhibition of this deservedly popular institution, which took place yesterday, was witnessed by an immense auditory, and fully sustained the high reputation, both religious and literary, of the meek Sisterhood that govern and instruct the children of the less prosperous portion of our community, and under whose parental care the lonely orphan is gifted with the riches of Learning, and blessed with the treasures of Religion. The venerable founder of the Asylum, (the Very Rev. WILLIAM MATTHEWS,) was on this occasion the "master of ceremonies," assisted by his honor the Mayor of Washington, each of whom, in turn, distributed the premiums among the meritorious classes. Addresses and recitations were delivered by the more advanced students, all of whom acquitted themselves in a manner rarely excelled by those of loftier pretensions. The tuition of the literary exercises was effectively relieved by an interlude of vocal and instrumental music, executed in the most exquisite style.—Hundreds of youthful countenances were wreathed with as many beaming smiles, whose brilliancy was reflected in the older faces of the graver company. Every one, indeed—old, young, grave, and gay—partook of the festivity, and all were richly repaid for a three hours' sitting, during the heat of midsummer, in the crowded hall of St. Vincent's Academy.

We cannot conclude this meagre notice without commending this excellent institution to the favorable consideration of the friends of the orphan.

NEW BOOKS.—We have received from G. Brooke, periodical agent, a copy of "The Grandfather" by Miss Pickering, being No. 39 of Harper's Library of Select Novels; "Ellen Middleton," a novel, by Lady Georgiana Fullerton; and the "Jesuit," being No. 13 of the New World Library of Fiction. Also, the "Horsekeeper's Guide," a work of importance to stable management, by James Mills.

ACCIDENT.—While several boys were engaged in the dangerous sport of running down the steep declivity of the pavement on E street, between 9th and 10th streets, in a hand cart, the vehicle was run over the arch and upset, and one of them, a son of Mrs. Keller, was severely, though we are happy to learn, not dangerously injured. He was immediately conveyed to the office of Dr. Hoban, in the neighborhood, where his wounds were properly attended to. This sport is imminently dangerous, and we would advise parents to see that their children are not engaged in it.
